

ART TRAIL

ART & AUSTRALIA COLLECTION 2003 - 2013

Draw lines between the dots to match the art mediums with their definitions.

DRAWING •

• To shape the design of a three-dimensional form.

SCULPTURE •

• A type of art on exhibition often involving video, lights, sound or movement.

INSTALLATION •

• An image recorded by a camera and reproduced onto a surface.

PHOTOGRAPH •

• The process of applying paint to a surface such as canvas, to make a picture.

PAINTING •

• A picture made by means of lines and mark making, often using pencils, pens, or a variation of these.

All works of art are from the Art & Australia Emerging Artist Collection.

Developed by Newcastle Art Gallery 2012®

NEWCASTLE ART GALLERY

art
• Australia

CREDIT SUISSE

THE CITY OF Newcastle

Front cover: Amanda MARBURG, Giving the devil his due #19 (detail) 2004, oil on canvas

FIND this huge drawing.

Laith MCGREGOR, Opal 2011, permanent marker on tarpaulin

Laith McGregor is interested in the way a beard can make a person seem mature and wise.

What would you look like with a beard?
DRAW your face onto this beard to see.

FIND this work of art.

Peter MADDEN, She 2007, found photographs, pins and archival glue CIRCLE the item below that is not hiding within it.

ELEPHANT CAT EARTH GOAT

KILLER WHALE TWO BATHERS

MAN ON A HORSE BACK MONKEY

DEER CAKE BUTTERFLY SNAKE

Alasdair MCLUCKIE, The sun as my witness 2010, woven glass seed beads, glass vessels, Perspex, glass beads and timber

LOOK at this installation.

Alasdair McLuckie has decorated the surface of these vases using a design made out of beads.

DRAW your own designs on the vases below.

Look closely at this painting.

Kushana Bush likes to create works of art with tiny details so that the viewer needs to get in close to see what's really going on.

How many of the following, funny things can you see when you look carefully at this work?

Count them and put the numbers in the boxes below.

Kushana BUSH, Pressed open book 2009
gouache and pencil on paper

Men

Sports head bands

Watches

Bald men

Tongues out

Moustaches

Band-aids

Stripy socks

the works of art in this exhibition that have a bag in them by using the following clues.

- 1 Oh Deer! This bag is very heavy.
- 2 Inside this bag you might find sandwiches, a rug, and some sunscreen.
- 3 Is it possible to have a hand bag without any hands?

1. Selina OU, Young couple with deer, Nara 2005, type-C photograph
 2. Michelle USSHER, Pinchhead II 2006, watercolour, quarelle and pencil on paper
 3. Rob MCHAFFIE, Everybody's got baggage but nobody's going anywhere 2006, oil on canvas

Christian DE VIETRI, 2nd law 2004, polyurethane, fibreglass, metal fridge

LOOK at what's happening to this fridge.

some of the melting food that could be found in this fridge.

this photograph.

Ash KEATING, The uprising #5 (from the series 'Activate 2750') 2009
type-C photograph

Ash Keating makes environmental statements with his installations. He uses discarded rubbish to make works of art and then photographs it.

What pieces of rubbish do you have at home that you could turn into art works?

a list below.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Giles RYDER, Silver strutter (daze of disco) 2006
neon, transformers and epoxy enamel on timber panels

FIND this installation.

The title of this work Daze of Disco refers to the disco era.

Ask an adult to show you a dance move from their days of disco.

DRAW yourself dancing in the disco below.

FINISH your Art Trail by drawing your favourite work of art below.

Now you get to take it home with you.

